Memorial Day Remembrance

Freedom is Not Free

I watched the flag pass by one day.

It fluttered in the breeze.

A young Marine saluted it,

And then he stood at ease.

I looked at him in uniform

So young, so tall, so proud,

He'd stand out in a crowd.

I thought how many men like him had fallen through the years.

How many had died on foreign soil?

How many mothers' tears?

How many pilots' planes shot down?

How many died at sea?

How many foxholes were soldiers' graves?

No, freedom is not free.

I heard the sound of Taps one night,

when everything was still

I listened to the bugler play

And felt a sudden chill.

I wondered just how many times

That Taps had meant "Amen"

When a flag had draped a coffin

Of brother or a friend.

I thought of all the children,

Of mothers and the wives,

Of fathers, sons and husbands

with interrupted lives.

I thought about a graveyard

At the bottom of the sea

Of unmarked graves in Arlington...

No, freedom is not free.
